Tree Plantation Drive

29th July 2019

Report

The equilibrium of the ecosystem in which we exist is maintained in large part by the environment. Most people don't recognize how important the environment is and end up causing damage to it through their varied actions. Long-term negative effects of environmental degradation will also have an impact on people. Therefore, an emphasis on sustainable development is necessary to protect the environment. In this manner, human needs will be satisfied without over exploiting the natural resources of the environment.

Plantation drive was organized by Pharmacy department on 29.07.2019 at University premises to promote a green environment. Chief guest Dr. Girendra Pal inaugurated the event by planting a tree followed by President, Registrar, Principal and other faculty members and students.

All the students and faculty members have participated with full energy in this program.

The objective of this program is to spread awareness among people about saving our environment from various types of pollution and to plant more and more trees to make our mother earth full of greenery.

Our program started at 11:15 am. All the students, faculty, staff members of the institution were given sapling of various species. The saplings included neem, peepal, mango. After the start of the program, all the students started planting their saplings around the campus, as well as all the teachers also helped the students in planting. There were also some groups of students who were also engaged in cleaning the school campus. The gardener of our school used to roam the entire campus and was also making sure that all the students did the planting properly or not.

Reduced climate change, cleaner air, cooler streets, natural air conditioning, water conservation, prevention of water pollution, provision of habitat for wildlife, erosion control, soil reinforcement, etc. are all advantages of tree plantations.

Following the plantation program, the principal and chief guest, Dr. Girendra Pal, shared their opinions on the environment day. He explained to the pupils how they may create a beautiful and clean atmosphere. He also advises us on the immediate actions we should take to create a healthy environment. Finally, he obtained a guarantee from each kid that they will not contribute to environmental pollution and will not permit others to do so.
