

2. Content Writing
3. Personality development
4. Fundamentals of human psychology

Members suggested for the preparation of new courses and proceed for implementation process as per university rules.

Agenda No.3: Discussion on Teaching Learning & Evaluation

- Members are informed that university has adopted hybrid mode of teaching (online and offline) as per the pandemic guidelines of state & central government. E-content was prepared by faculty members and uploaded on website. Teachers are further motivated for preparation of video lectures and refined e content for students. Think tank preparation was initiated as per the current syllabus of the university.
- University hospital is regularly distributing preventive medicine for COVID 19 and conducting awareness program about COVID 19 Prevention in local mass as per our social responsibility.
- Members suggested for improvement of technology in pandemic period for teaching so that it should not be affected. Planning of Academic Plan, discussion on Add-on courses, Value Added courses, Cultural Activities (As per government guidelines), Social Activities(As per government guidelines) etc should be continues process .

Agenda No.4 : Discussion on Enhancement of Research.

- Members are informed about various publications of students & faculty members. Members appreciated the publications of students and faculty and motivated our faculties and students to publish more good research papers in reputed journals and conferences.
- Members review the revised research policy & initiated to promote research as per new policy. Members again suggested increasing research activities inside institution.

Agenda No. 5 : Discussion on achieving good grade in NAAC & NABH accreditation .

- NABH committee has been formed and application was filed and soon inspection for NABH accreditation is accepted. Members appreciated the work of NABH committee and directed to finalize the preparation of NABH inspection soon.

Agenda No. 8 : Any other matter with permission of chair.

No matter to discuss

Meeting ended with thanks to chair.

Submitted for approval
Adalvi
IQAC Member Secretary
Homoeopathy University,
JAIPUR

Asur
IQAC Chairman
Homoeopathy University,
JAIPUR